"Big Brother Is You, Watching" Department: The St. Louis school board has equipped school busses with televisions in order to improve discipline. "It's much easier to get students under control with the videos," said busdriver Vernell Brownlee. Students don't want to get off the bus when it arrives at school and ask to be the last let off at the end of the day. Brownlee described the younger passengers as "almost hypnotized."

CHRIST ON A CRUTCH

This interview was conducted in the cramped stairwell landing at Ziggy's apartment (because it was too noisy upstairs, and we had to stay off the roof). There was still a lot of background noise, though, so it was quite a chore to decipher individual voices from the chaos, hence the scratched out mistakes. Bear with us...

Jan. 19 — Contingent of Detroiters participate in Washington DC protest whose participants total 100,000.

Jan. 26. — Another march in Washington with many Detroiters in attendance for a march totaling 250,000. Some join with 400 anarchists to form a loud, energetic contingent, throwing bricks through bank windows, and tearing down a fence outside the FBI.

Profane Existence is a monthly magazine documenting the anarchist punk international culture of resistance. Each issue includes an up-to-date Echomedia News section pulling together counter-information on our culture, documentation of squat resistance, political prisoners, human and animal liberation, alternative health care, and, of course, the music and creativity that makes our culture so unique. We also give quite a bit of space for networking within our movement and print a section on international A.Y.F. activities. Another effort of the Profane Existence Collective has been releasing records and cassettes by anarchist and anti-authoritarian bands (punk rock, eh?) in an effort to further spread the movement of free thought and to save our asses and our wretched planet.

ANARCHIST YOUTH

DISTRIBUTION

A.Y.F. Distribution is a non-profit mail-order distribution service run by volunteers in the aim of spreading anarchist and anti-authoritarian ideals amongst young people. At any given time we stock between 150-200 titles of periodicals, pamphlets, books, records, cassettes and compact discs available and we publish a new catalog each month. This is just one of the activities of the Minneapolis affiliate of the Anarchist Youth Federation (A.Y.F.).

The A.Y.F. is an organization of concerned young people who are dedicated to building a better future for ourselves and future generations. We base our activities around the goals of education, communication and liberation. In North America there are several dozen active A.Y.F. chapters all across the continent, organizing autonomously on a local level.

For a copy of our latest mail-order catalog or more information on the A.Y.F. please send a few stamps or IRC's to:

"The world now corresponds more closely to the prophetic warnings of primal peoples than to the hollow advertising claims of the industrial system: the plants disappearing and the animals dying, the soils denuded along with the human spirit, vast oceans poisoned, the very rain turned corrosive and deadly, human communities at war with one another over diminishing spoils — and all poised on the brink of an even greater annihilation at the push of a few buttons."

Okay, he's down there, he's down there!

(Then we all went inside to avoid being seen in bribed to not tow the car. This concludes the interview with Hunger Farm) Thank guys!

Mike: That's what we heard.

egg boy: Yeah, he's like a big fan of you guys, I saw him at the Fugazi show which was June 2nd.

Mike: we played with these guys.

egg boy: really?!

Bill: Fugazi and Beat Happening.

Mike: They used to be my favorite band.

Bill: People were throwing shit at Beat Happening, though, because I guess they're kinda... they're not exactly, ya know, hardcore.

Brian: I saw Fugazi in Columbia, MO and this other band called The Church of Bowling opened for them.

Bill: Church of Bowling?

All: (Laughter)

Bill: That's a great name, though!

Brian: This really huge guy in The Exit, he's about 7 feet tall and wears overalls, he looks like about the biggest inbred you ever saw, but he's not, he's really cool.

egg boy: Oh, I thought you were talking about the guy at the show tonight.

Brian: No, that's somebody else.

egg boy: I wanted to ask you guys what you thought of the show tonight. How would you compare it to other shows you've played?

Bill: In L.A. you mean?

egg boy: Well, start with L.A.

Bill: L.A. is real stagnated. It's hard to get shows there. There's no all ages. When you do get all ages, it's a real small place.

egg boy: Do you ever have to pay to play shows there?

egg boy: O.K., LET'S SEE, UM...

Brian: DON'T YOU THINK IT'S KINDA WEIRD THAT THE CLUB IS IN THE REDWATER PART OF TOWN?

egg boy: YEAR... WHEN WE PLAY IN D.C. THE CLUBS IN THE MIDDLE OF GANG TUFF.

Nate: NO, THAT'S IN SEATTLE.

JERRY: (WASHA!)... RIGHT BEFORE WE LEFT SEATTLE THERE WAS A GOSH (LITTLE) INCIDENT, LIKE A LITTLE (GANG FACTION, YOU KNOW? GANG VIOLENCE...

egg boy: DURING THE SHOW, OR RIGHT BEFORE...

JERRY: DURING THE SHOW SOME BOK US WERE MOVING UP TO THE DOOR AND GOT JUMPED... SHOTS WERE FIRED... KIDS WERE FIRING INTO THE AIR, YOU KNOW? ONE ~~WAS~~ PULLING A GUN OUT AND PUT IT IN A KIDS FACE THEN THE OTHER KID DID THE SAME, AND THEN THEY SAID THERE AND PUT THEM AWAY. I NO AN SAID MAN. THEY HIT ONE OF THE GUYS WE WERE WITH WITH A BRICK OR SOME-THING AND DROPPED IT AND RAN... THERE WERE A LOT OF BRICKS AND BOTTLES FLYING...

egg boy: THERE'S A CLUB IN ST. LOUIS WHERE A LOT OF HARD CORE BANDS PLAY CALLED ~~WAST~~ WHERE THE SAME KIND OF SHIT HAPPENS.

JERRY: YEAR! THESE KIDS THINK THEY'RE COOL FOR ONE NIGHT... THE GUY WHO OWNS THE CLUB RUNS THE WHOLE BLOCK AND HE HAS REPEL OUT THERE THE NEXT

Bill: Well, what I mean is... we just ~~think~~ that we like to do, it's kinda like we... a lot of bands tend to label themselves, they do a certain thing, and that's just a self-limiting, you know?

Yeah, that can be true. Sometimes,

Bill I mean we all listen to a real wide variety of music, ya know?

eggs Well, basically, you don't have any political songs, right?

Bill Well, one of our songs is about abortion.

This interview was held on the back roof/porch at Ziggy's apartment, Hunger Farm is a great 3-piece band from L.A. Read on to find out more.

eggboy Okay, this is Hunger Farm, everybody state your name and what you do in the band.

Bill My name is Bill, I sing and play guitar.

Mike Mike, bass and backup vocals.

Mike #2 Mike, drums.

eggboy Alright, so what's the latest stuff you got out now?

Bill We just did a record for Nemesis.

eggboy Oh, you got a full album out now?

Bill Well, it'll be out September 7th.

eggboy I saw the stuff David (MoorNearer) had, you sent to him, all the 7" records and stuff. What are the names of those? I didn't see any specific names on them.

Mike They never had a name.

Bill The 6-song e.p. and the 4-song e.p.

eggboy So, what's the new album called?

All Dogma.

eggboy Have you had any changes recently?

Bill Well, the drummer.

eggboy Oh, are you new?

Mike #2 Yeah.

Bill He's not a sound that's more developed.

eggboy Okay, so what is your goal or purpose as a band.

Mike Personally, I do it for fun...

eggboy ... personal expression...

All yeah

Bill You always feel better after a show.

eggboy It must be great to travel around and do shows.

Mike Yeah, I like to be able to travel around.

eggboy Where do you play tomorrow?

being in rallies where there were hundreds of us doing "No more KKK, No fascist USA!" and then they'd go: "No more, we don't need that..." I get frustrated, ya know I look at what goes on, especially in this country, I just... when I saw Ollie North became the great American hero, I watched all this shit go down, and it continues to go down...

eggboy Don't you ever ~~feel~~ feel like you're the only person, well, not the only person, but a small minority of people that feel ~~that way~~, like you're lost in an ocean of people who don't feel that way?

Jerry Yeah, it's one of the only reasons I still do this music, I can go out and meet you guys, ya know, and you guys...

eggboy So then you find out by travelling around that there are other people like that.

Jerry There are, but they're a real small percentage, man, most people are lost, and always will be.

(The conversation splits into several separate conversations, coinciding at the same time, dealing with how stupid the war was, to unintelligible garble that I find impossible to decipher) eggboy Any last comments?

Jerry Thank to Dave for setting up the show. I was the best one we've had this tour.

eggboy Any questions or comments Dave?

One of the best Anarchist publications in the nation. Articles include: "The Empire at War", "The Myth of the Party", and "Civilization in Bulk." This publication offers tremendous insight into an anarchists view of the world. ~~xxxxxx~~

"Civilization has come to be regarded not as a promise yet to be fulfilled so much as a maladaptation of the species, a false turn of a kind of fever threatening the planetary web of life."

Fuck Your Conscience. Its programmed differently depending on the society you're raised in. For example, a guy raised as a cannibal would have no problem killing another human, yet if he was raised in a society like ours, his conscience would probably tell him different. Likewise, if most people in our country were raised in a non-violent, objective culture they would most likely not torture, kill, and exploit non-human animals for no reason.

Listening to your conscience is letting the blind chance of where you happen to be brought up controll your life.
Such a way of living will solve nothing. This is why for a good life (one which will positively contribute to the creation of the best possible society) YOU MUST THINK FOR YOURSELF. Fuck tradition and patriotism. Think about the set values of your family and community before you blindly follow them. Rebel against the prescribed moral standards and conventional behavior that you find senseless. MINDLESS CONFORMITY IS THE GREATEST EVIL, as it prevents the truth from being found and allows no room for change to improve the social condition. It can be used to turn sentient lifeforms into thoughtless tools and destroys free will creating ENDLESS DEATH.

IN THE AMERICAN
WORKPLACE

The majority of the book's content will be anecdotes and stories from hundreds of people that have utilized various forms of sabotage in their workplace—whether as a weapon against boredom, harassment, poor working conditions, or as a tool of political action. Essays, artwork, and quotes will also be included to further explain and support workplace sabotage.

The purpose of the book will be to document the fact that sabotage in the American workplace is as common as we know ourselves, where there's one there's a thousand. The book will demonstrate that most people who work in America get over on their jobs in various ways and for numerous reasons. If nothing more, this book will give comfort to those who feel that they might be alone in using this methodology and to inspire those who have yet to realize its importance and potential.

If you have an anecdote or story that you think might fit in with this book's theme please get in contact with us, include a job description and a brief explanation of your method of sabotage. We will consider all contributions (be it theft of paper clips or the destruction of computer systems) and will be covering as many different jobs as possible.

Sabotage: The conscious or willful act of interfering with the structure and process of a workplace environment. Tactics: Withdrawal of efficiency or quality, absenteeism (faking sickness, etc.), theft (materials or time), and destruction of machinery, merchandise, or property.

Threat By Example (PDP 001) is still available for $7.00 (U.S.)/$9.00 (everywhere else) and A No Record Deal (PDP 002) will be out early next year along with several other printed releases. California residents add 7% sales tax.
